GUAPA Clean Up

ABSOLUTELY MUST HAVE!

A moment of warm light, before every mile ahead.

Every driver knows that moment — the long stretch of road, the dimming light, the mind starting to drift. SELUMA by Guapa Clean Up was born from a simple idea: what if the few minutes before you get back behind the wheel could become a small ritual of renewal? Inspired by the natural warmth of red light, the Red Light Therapy-based SELUMA Bracelet was designed with one person in mind — the driver who gives everything to the road, and deserves a moment to recharge before continuing the journey. This is an absolutely new idea that supports drivers and relieves fatigue.

SELUMA by Guapa Clean Up

Your reset ritual before the road ahead. A few minutes of warm red light on your wrist, designed to help you feel recharged, present, and ready to focus on what matters: the drive ahead of you.

Slip it on. Feel the warmth settle in. Ten minutes later, you're ready — recharged, present, and focused on the road ahead.

- 14-point warm red light array
- Soft, flexible silicone band with magnetic clasp
- Two swappable battery packs, USB-C charging
- Designed for life on the road: drivers, commuters, anyone who needs a reset
